

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA
INDIANAPOLIS DIVISION

NOTICE OF CONSULTATION REQUIREMENT
IN CHAPTER 13 CASES AND NOTICE OF EFFECTIVE DATE
(INDIANAPOLIS DIVISION ONLY)

The Court has issued General Order 09-0002, which imposes on debtors and their counsel, if any, an obligation to consult with the Chapter 13 trustee about the trustee's objection to confirmation or the debtor's objection to the trustee's motion to dismiss. The order provides that failure to consult with the trustee may result in dismissal of the case without further notice or hearing.

The General Order directs the Clerk to set an effective date for the consultation requirement, to coincide with changes to block scheduling. Those changes will be effective, and therefore the consultation requirement becomes effective, on Monday, July 13, 2009. A separate notice reminding of the consultation requirement will be issued in each case where an objection to confirmation or an objection to the trustee's motion to dismiss is filed.

Additional information about the changes to block scheduling will be issued prior to the effective date.
